E&E ENTERPRISES GLOBAL INC.
RANKS AMONG TOP PRIVATE FIRMS BY INC. MAGAZINE

Hampton, Va. – Inc. Magazine has ranked E&E Enterprises Global Inc., a privately held telecommunication and information assurance/cyber security service provider, among the fastest-growing private firms in the United States. E&E's growth of 573% earned the ranking No. 569 of the 5,000 firms listed and No. 19 among the top 100 telecommunications companies.

"We live by the motto 'delivering as promised' and that has created tremendous customer loyalty over the years," noted Ernest Green Jr., E&E Enterprise Global, Inc., President and CEO.

The Inc. 5,000 is an extension of Inc. Magazine's annual Inc. 500 list. Taken as a whole, these companies represent the backbone of the U.S. economy, the magazine said. "The Inc. 5000 gives an unrivalled portrait of companies across all industries doing fascinating things with cutting-edge business models," said Inc. 5000 Project Manager Jim Melloan.

"We strive to foster and promote a positive business environment to aid in the success of all Hampton businesses and are delighted E&E Enterprises Global Inc. has achieved remarkable growth," remarked James Eason, Director of the City of Hampton Economic Development Department.

Established in 1997, E&E has grown consistently over the past decade by providing stellar service and putting the customer first. E&E currently manages more than 98 contracts (federal, state and local government agencies) consisting of broadband (T-1, Fractional T-1, cable, DSL and satellite), digital satellite television services and cyber security.

As a world-class satellite, telecommunication, and cyber security service and equipment provider, E&E's services include satellite TV, space segment, satellite networks, Internet connectivity, data streaming, voice over IP and satellite phones to a wide variety of government and commercial customers. E&E is an 8(a) and Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business headquartered in Hampton, Va.
